PHILIP H. SCHOO RECOGNITION

CANS FOR BOOKS

RECYCLE RECYCLE

Individuals, families, neighborhoods, VIP partners are encouraged to recycle aluminum cans to help buy books through the Cans For Books program, April 1-30.

In honor of School Library Media Month, for every pound of aluminum recycled in April, Midland Recycling will give an additional 5 cents per pound to a designated Lincoln/Lancaster County elementary or middle school library.

Keep your aluminum profits!

School still receive 5 cents per pound from Midland Recycling.- (OR)

Donate all or a portion of your aluminum profits to a school of your choice. Schools with top dollar earning per capita will win big cash awards.

ALSO

Designate your donation in the name of a student(s). The student(s) with the largest total aluminum weight donated will qualify for Lee Booksellers gift certificates.

First place - $50; second place - $25!

Bring cans to:

South location; A-Can Recycling, 3255 S. 10th St. - North location; A & J Recycling, 3400 N. 22nd St.

Sponsored by A & J Recycling, A-Can Recycling, Midland Recycling, Lee Booksellers, LPS Recycling Office, LPS Media Services and Ventures in Partnership (VIP)

Questions? Contact Ken Cooper, Midland Recycling at 770-6664 or Marti Franti, LPS Recycling Coordinator at 436-1061.
